MISSION & VISION

Our mission is to provide chocolate to stressed individuals.
Our vision is a world without stress.

WHY CHOCOLATE?

Chocolate has the power to bring happiness to everyone. The modern world is loud, busy, distracting, and stressful. Eating quality chocolate, especially with friends and family, relieves stress and brings happiness.

Chocolate for All works with employers to bring chocolate to the workplace. We reach out directly to stressed individuals, using both technology and in-person programs.

IMPACT

We have funded 2,342 educational programs and provided chocolate to more than 400,000 stressed individuals.

LEADERSHIP

As technology executives, Stan Miller and Erica Brown were surrounded by stress. They launched an annual Day of Chocolate at their workplace, to relieve stress. It was a huge success! Realizing that stress is a nationwide problem, Stan and Erica founded Chocolate for All in 2001 to educate, encourage, and enable everyone to access chocolate.

LIVES CHANGED

Access to chocolate has changed the lives of Matt and Amy.

Matt

Matt learned how to use chocolate in the kitchen, for meals both savory and sweet. Now, he and his family are happier than ever.

Amy

After experiencing the joy of the Chocolate at Work program, when stress hits, she knows just what to do.

PROGRAMS

Chocolate in the Kitchen

Educational programs designed to combine cooking and chocolate. Participants learn the best methods for bringing the joy of chocolate into the kitchen.

Chocolate at Work

Sponsored by employers for their employees, this program brings chocolate into the workplace. We offer a relaxing program of chocolate and fun to relieve stress in the workplace.

Chocolate Delivered

Through our innovative website and app, stressed individuals can request a quick fix of chocolate in moments of high stress.
